Coaching and psychological counseling competence

Caroline Cerar is owner and managing director of Management Counterparts, consultant and trained systemic coach. She carries a master title in psychotherapeutic psychology and further education in Gestalt therapy and systemic therapy and consulting.

Alongside her consulting profession, she works as a coach and sparring partner for top executives and runs a psychological counseling institute (www.executive-counseling.com) specialized on people with leadership responsibility.

From 2008 to 2011, Caroline Cerar was member of the Academic Management of the master's course in psychotherapeutic psychology of the Danube University Krems. She studied Law and Business Administration at the Karl-Franzens-University Graz, where she is currently lecturing at the Department of Corporate Leadership and Entrepreneurship.
